The Swan

Bulletin 79

May 6, 2008

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Our speaker was Philip Mullen, Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Art at the University of South Carolina. He is probably the most renowned artist working in the state of South Carolina today. Philip is an artist's artist who celebrates the richness of the visual world. The Sumter Gallery of Art is currently exhibiting his work through May 30, 2008.

Philip said when he is painting, he starts a dialogue with the painting and he listens to what the painting says to him. He showed us slides of some of his work at different stages of completion. Philip stated that what's important in a painting is getting it all to work together.
